Strolls in the Old MAUSSANE

The borough called « Vieux Maussane » is the historical heart of the village. Till 1754, when the building of the church was completed, it concentrated the majority of the inhabitants .

We propose you to wander around this bourough, starting from square Henri

Giraud (behind the school).

Go down avenue des Marronniers and turn right in picturesque street rue du Vieux Maussane which leads to the historical heart of the village.

You will discover mansion-house called « maison Quenin ».

This mansion-house was built just before the French Révolution.

Later on, Dr Denis Honoré Quenin will have his doctor's practise there.

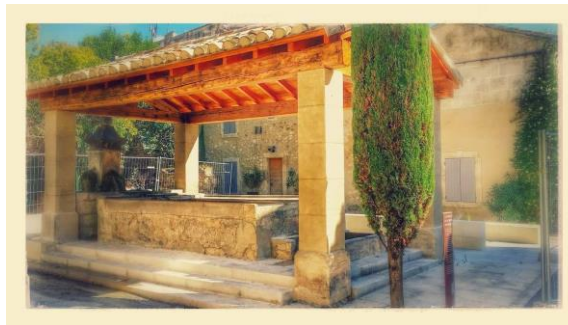

In 1810 Dr Denis-Honoré QUENIN has a fountain and a small wash house built on a field of his that he offers to the inhabitants.

This public fountain was a meeting point appreciated by women. In the freshness of water flowing from the pipes, it was a place of sociability where washerwomen chatted while washing their linen.

Make a stop by « Planet», a small square which invites to daydreaming and may inspire you writing postal cards...

Take the opportunity to refresh at the fountain or at the adjacent small wash house .

Go up street Charloun Rieu and make a stop by CONFISERIEIE d'OLIVES Jean Martin.

Gourmands will enjoy provençal cuisine workshops and Jean Martin specialities (olives, tapenade , pistou and many other southern savors) !

Go on further and OLIVE OIL MILL HUILE Jean-Marie Cornille will welcome you in its vaulted rooms for free visits and tastings.

Olive oil making and different fruitées will have no more secrets for you !

Go back down in street Charloun Rieu and turn left to take a path « chemin des Bati-gnelles » (former railway dating from 1887) which will lead you back to square Henri Giraud.
